- V. Manuscript Processing
 1. The manuscript must not be submitted to any other journals and must not infringe on any others' copyrights or violate academic ethics. Should the manuscript or research include such violations, the author is solely responsible, and this journal will not accept further submission from the author for a period of three years. This journal may claim compensation depending on the degree of severity of the circumstances.
 2. The full paper around 10,000-25,000 word (Chinese) or 5,000-12,000 word (English) is welcomed for consideration (including the abstract, keywords, references, appendixes, tables, and figure legends). If the discipline of a submitted paper does not match the domain of linguistics and literature or the thesis writing, such a paper will be rejected.
 3. Manuscripts that have been submitted for review cannot be withdrawn. Applications for withdrawal of manuscripts due to exceptional reasons are subject to the decision of the editor-in-chief. Regarding authors who have voluntarily withdrawn manuscripts without special reason, this journal will not accept further manuscripts from such authors for a period of two years.
 4. Authors whose papers have been accepted for publication must sign the "Transfer of Copyright Agreement" and submit the form to this journal. The copyrights to this paper will then be reserved by the National Taiwan Normal University. The “Transfer of Copyright Agreement” can be downloaded at the following link: <http://jntnu.ntnu.edu.tw/acad/Uploads/File/Copyright%20Authorization%20Agreement.pdf>.

5. Within one month of receiving the “Notice of Revision”, the author must return the revised manuscript and explanation of revision. Manuscripts for which such response is overdue will be seen as rejected manuscripts. In cases of extenuating circumstances, please contact the journal in advance.
6. This journal will provide a reviewer comment form for each manuscript within six months of submission, regardless of whether the manuscript has been accepted for publication.
7. The editorial board of this journal will determine the publication quarter for all papers accepted by this journal, based on editorial needs.

VI. Printing

1. The author is responsible for proofreading after the paper has been typeset; the journal is only responsible for format proofing.
2. This journal will provide a copy of the journal quarterly to the published author in both hard copy and disk form, free of charge. Apart from these items, there will be no payment for the manuscript.
